“ I want to send condolences to Karen, Jennie, Brian, Pat, Tim and Jerry and all of the family that I have not yet met. Paul and I were "shack" buddies and he was great to me the 20 years that we knew each other. Once we got past the stern question; "what are you doing on the road" and I explained I had bought the shack across from him we were good buddies. Paul sometimes came off as tough to some people, but generally there was a teddy bear behind that exterior. As far as I was concerned he knew everything there was to know about the outdoors, mechanics, machinery, trucking and lots of other important stuff he taught me. I felt bad as he slowly was not able to do the things he wanted to do outdoors at the shack, but he was stoic about the loss of these things. He got quite a bit of help from his nephew Chad Connor. Sitting in his garage with a beer was one of my favorite things to do and we always had good conversations, using the tools and animals on the wall to get the conversation started. Paul was always a hit with my friends and family who came to the shack. He loved to kid with my grandsons and he was a favorite of my best friend Larry, who also mourns the loss of Paul. Larry never failed to ask how Paul was doing when we got together. Hunting weekends at the shack were always filled with stories. My son and son in law loved to hear the stories that Paul told, and got a little education in the process.

He will be missed by his family and friends. Remember the good times and enjoy your memories of Paul.
